Two Escanaba Multi-Million Issues Affected

LANSING (AP) Gov. George Romney has protested to Treasury Secretary Henry Fowler that a proposal to end the tax-exempt status of industrial development bonds would be a serious blow to the Michigan economy.

Romney also wrote all of Michigan's congressmen and senators asking them to work against the proposed change before it becomes effective next Friday.

Removal of the tax exemption provision would make industrial development bonds much less attractive to investors, Romney said.

The regulation would have a long term impact on Michigan's efforts at economic expansion because industrial development bond financing is one of the incentives used by the states to attract new industries, he said.

Problems Cited

Romney asked that the issue be resolved by congressional action rather than administrative regulation. He also urged consultations with state and local government officials before there is any departure from the present policy on tax exemptions.

The governor said there is an immediate problem of several bond issues about to be marketed.

Largest of these is a $56 million bond issue intended to finance a new paper mill facility to be leased to the Escanaba Paper Co.

Unless the Internal Revenue Service rules that these bonds are tax exempt, "this sizeable expansion in an area needing economic development is in jeopardy," Romney said.

Pending Issues

The governor cited a list of industrial bonds sold recently that resulted in an investment of $53.3 million and up to 2,800 new jobs.

These included:

- $12.5 million for Beach-Nut Life Savers Inc., confectionary plant at Holland, to employ 200-300 workers.
- $98 million for the Budd Co., disc brake parts manufacturing plant to employ 300-400 workers.
- $33 million for Allied Supermarkets Inc., food processing plant at Livonia, to employ 2,000 workers.

Pending projects, all affected by the proposed change, were listed as:

- $56 million Escanaba Paper Co. plant.
- $2.8 million Garwood Industries Inc. facility at Ypsilanti Township.
- $4.5 million Westab Co. facility at Kalamazoo.
- $16.5 million Chicago and Northwestern Railroad facility at Escanaba.

In addition, Romney said, 17 other similar projects are in various stages of progress.

May 24 Is Set For Pasty Day

LANSING (AP)—The pasty, the tasty meat pie brought to the Upper Peninsula by hard-rock miners from Cornwall, has been honored by Gov. George Romney. Romney has proclaimed May 24 as Pasty Day in Michigan.

The governor also designated April 14-20 as Grange Week in Michigan.

George Christian declined comment on reports the talks were making little headway.

Union negotiators reportedly turned down an offer from Phelps Dodge Corp. which federal officials had hoped would lead to settlements with the three other firms in the White House talks—Kennebec Copper Corp., Anaconda Co. and American Smelting & Refining Co.

The Phelps Dodge offer reportedly was the second by that company to be turned down by the unions since Johnson.

The White House said Johnson was expected to remain in his office while the negotiations continue through the weekend in the Executive Office Building next door.

Washington (AP) — Negotiations prompted by President Johnson in the 239-day copper strike are continuing after the unions reportedly spurned one company's three-year contract offer to hike wages by more than $1 per hour.

Union officials, meanwhile, announced Friday they are calling a meeting of some 200 officials of all 26 striking unions next Monday "to review the situation resulting from current talks initiated by resident Johnson."

The White House said Johnson was expected to remain in his office while the negotiations continue through the weekend in the Executive Office Building next door.

Washington (AP) — The State Conservation Department estimates timber cuttings in northern Michigan state forests pumped $94 million into the economy last year. About 45,700 acres of state lands were cut over, mostly near winter deer yards. The cuttings provided browse for deer and also cleared the way for the new growth to feed the deer herd.

Dive-Bombers Back Yank Infantrymen

SAIGON (AP) — Pouring out of a sheet of machine-gun fire from advancing armored personnel carriers, U.S. infantrymen tore into Communist troops along the coastal lowlands below Da Nang today.

First reports said 85 enemy soldiers had been killed, with the fighting continuing nine miles northwest of the provincial capital of Tam Ky.

Artillery and dive-bombers joined men of the U.S. American Division in the onslaught.

American casualties were not disclosed under a U.S. Command policy of withholding such information while a battle continues.

Earlier, Communist gunners sent 40 mortar rounds into night defensive positions of American Division troops in the same area. One U.S. soldier was killed and 25 wounded.

Shell Saigon

Communist mortar attacks also renewed their harassing attacks on Saigon after several nights of quiet. Three rounds slammed into a police dependents' housing area in the slums of southern Saigon. Four civilians were killed and 20 wounded.

Viet Cong troops shelled four other South Vietnamese military posts on the outskirts of Saigon. Casualties at two of the installations were not reported. At the third, spokesmen said there were none, but a quantity of ammunition went up in flames. At the fourth post, casualties were said to be light.

Heavy fighting was reported for the second day in a row along the eastern section of the demilitarized zone near Dong Ha, a supply center for other bases along the frontier.

South Vietnamese headquarters said government infantrymen killed 50 Communist troops Friday and captured 21 weapons and 100 rounds of rockets and mortars. Nine South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and six wounded, a spokesman said.

Bomb Red Positions

A task force of U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese infantrymen battled 500 Communist for seven hours in the same general area Thursday and reported killing 164 enemy soldiers. In that fight, 16 Marines were killed and 113 wounded. South Vietnamese casualties were reported light.

In other action in the northernmost provinces, U.S. Air Force B-52 bombers pounded suspected Communist positions near Khe Sanh and Hue, both now considered likely targets for a major enemy assault.

The eight-engine Stratofortresses mounted two raids today near Khe Sanh and struck four times Friday night and today within nine miles of Hue, an area they have been hitting regularly in the last several days.

Conservatives Don't Plan To Desert GOP

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Conservative Republicans, meeting here today in what they bill as their first statewide convention, stressed they were trying to strengthen their position in the Michigan GOP and did not intend to desert it.

"We feel the rightful place for conservatives is in the Republican party," Richard Durant, 14th District Republican chairman and temporary chairman of the convention, said Friday on the eve of the meeting.

Moderate Gov. George Romney, although invited to the conservative conclave by Durant, a long-time political enemy, planned to be in Washington today to tape "Face the Nation" and attend the annual gridiron dinner.

Durant, a Romney critic since the governor's first state campaign in 1962, charged Romney has long tried to "purge" the Michigan GOP of conservatives.

Organizers of today's meeting said they expected more than 300 would attend the day-long session, devoted to setting up a permanent political organization, debating major state and national issues, and conducting a straw-vote presidential primary.

Speeches by author Phyllis Schlafly, who penned the book "A Choice, Not an Echo," in support of the 1964 presidential efforts of Barry M. Goldwater, and by state Sen. Robert Huber, R-Troy, also were planned.

William Antisdale, a Kalamazoo County conservative and chairman of the convention's resolutions committee, said he expected delegates to vote on resolutions dealing with Vietnam, civil disturbances, the Pueblo affair, open housing, the state income tax and other issues.

Durant estimated Friday that about a third of Michigan's Republicans identify themselves as conservatives. But he said the figure would be closer to 75 or 80 per cent if Republicans were judged by their feelings on the issues.

Paper Mill, Ore Terminal Face Deadline

The Escanaba Area's vision of a great industrial upsurge with finance under Michigan's Industrial Revenue Bonding Act was clouded today.

U.S. Treasury Secretary Fowler has set Friday, March 15 as deadline for tax free status for such bonding.

The validity of the $56 million industrial revenue bond issue being sponsored by Cornell Township to finance plant expansion at the Escanaba Paper Co., and the $16 million issue being sponsored by the City of Escanaba to finance the Chicago & North Western Railway's ore terminal here is not under question.

What's affected is the freedom of such bonds from federal income taxes. This is a strong factor in making the bonds saleable and is usually worth about one percentage point in interest. Investors are willing to take less interest on their bond investments if they have to pay proportionately less in taxes on the income they get from bonds.

Government Bonds

Local and state governments have traditionally been able to float bonds which were not subject to federal taxation. The privilege was granted because otherwise there would be a federal tax on a local tax, a double levy for one governmental purpose, making local government works financing needlessly and improperly expensive.

Michigan turned to industrial revenue bonding because it was losing industry to Southern states which were luring it away with offers of factories financed by local government. Michigan turned to industrial bonding to compete with the South. Like the Southern states, its local governments offered their own tax free status to the industrial bonds.

This action has now come under question by the Treasury Department, which has become concerned about loss of tax revenue through local government's issue of tax exempt bonds to finance industrial plants.

Gov't Owns Plants

These plants are the properties of the local governments until the bonds are retired by the payments of the industries for which they are built. Cornell Township, for instance, would own the Escanaba Paper Co. mill addition financed with the $56 million bond issue until the bonds were paid off by the paper company. Ditto with the City of Escanaba and the North Western Ore Terminal.

The local government sponsoring the industrial bonds is not liable for default on the bond issues; they are underwritten by the industry being financed.

One Test, Says Barnard:

'Operate On The Sickest Patient'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Christian N. Barnard, the pioneer heart-transplant surgeon from South Africa, has told congress only one standard should be applied—and only by doctors—in deciding who should receive a new heart: "Who is the sickest patient?"

Barnard testified before a Senate Government Operations subcommittee Friday that a proposed commission to study legal, ethical and social aspects of heart-transplant operations is "an insult to your doctors."

"Who decides where the general should attack? The public?" Barnard asked the four senators. "No, I don't think the public is qualified to make the decision. The general is qualified to make the decision."

Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., asked which of several patients should be chosen if just one donated heart is available.

"Operate on the patient who needs it most," replied Barnard.

Then Ribicoff outlined a hypothetical situation in which a doctor would have to choose one patient to receive a new heart from among a millionaire, a senator, an industrialist and a laborer.

"I've just explained it to you," Barnard said. "Who is the sickest patient?"

The commission idea was proposed by Sen. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn.

Discussing the proposal with the Cape Town surgeon, senators argued that new problems have been created with the advent of such expensive operations—that only a limited number of persons could be saved by heart-transplants.

But Barnard, maintaining such decisions have always been up to the doctor, replied: "None of these problems are new problems. You can't tell me one new problem."

Barnard said it is up to the doctor to decide when to remove a heart from a donor—as he did from two accident victims in South Africa.

"Why do we have to have new definitions of death, or commissions to tell us when a patient is dead? We doctors have done that for years," he said.

Barnard has performed two heart-transplant operations. His first patient, grocer Louis Washkansky, died after 18 days, but his second, retired dentist Philip Blaiberg is still alive after receiving his new heart on Jan. 2.

Tanker Grounds; Oil Smears Pink Bahama Beaches

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — A tide of thick, black oil washed onto the pink beaches of Eleuthera Island today from the hold of a tanker battered by seas up to 20 feet and grounded on a reef near Point James.

A tug stood by half a mile from the 555-foot General Colonos waiting for seas to diminish but the U.S. Coast Guard in Miami said there seemed little hope of saving the grounded vessel. Even if tugs could yank her off the rocks, the Coast Guard said, the tanker was likely to sink in deeper water.

One crewman was lost and presumed drowned after a rescue boat capsized in an all sick Friday. He was identified as Stratos Mastrotatinis, a Greek national, according to the Bahamas air sea service in Nassau.

Detergents to emulsify the oil were being flown from Florida and New York in an effort to keep the slick from spreading to all of the 100-mile seaward beaches on one of the most scenic islands of the Bahamas chain. The color of the beaches comes from rose coral dust mixed with the white sand.

The Greek tanker washed onto the rocks Thursday night with a dead engine when the ship's fuel line broke and the engine room flooded, according to reports from the scene.

The vessel went aground in heavy weather as it brought 18,478 tons of Venezuelan oil—about six million gallons—from Aruba to West Palm Beach, Fla. The ship was under charter to a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey.

Three of the 32 crewmen remained aboard although the rear deck was awash.

Four miles of beach were reported blackened as a slick five miles long and two miles wide spread before a southeast wind, threatening the island of Exuma and the snowy white beaches of Harbour Island.

21 Salt Miners All Found Dead

CALUMET, La. (AP) — The bodies of 21 men who perished in the caverns of a salt mine have been found and efforts were under way today to learn the cause of the fire that killed them.

The four-day search came to an end Friday. Sixteen bodies were found huddled together in a tunnel 3,000 feet from the mine shaft. The other five were located a few hours later. Officials for Cargill, Inc., which owns the mine did not disclose the exact spot.

The tragedy struck eight months after the Federal Bureau of Mines recommended a sister shaft be sunk to provide better ventilation, an escape route and various fire controls.

H. A. Schreengost, a bureau official in Indianapolis, Ind., said the recommendations were made by A. M. Evans, a mining engineer from the Dallas suburb, after an "observation walk-through" last August.

In Minneapolis, W. R. Pearce, a Cargill vice president, said the company requested the inspection and that some recommendations were followed, with others "in the process of approval and implementation."

Jim Bove, a public relations man for the mining company, added Friday night, "there was no specific suggestion in the entire observation which could have prevented the fire."

Raymond R. Ashby, a coal mine safety expert from Kentucky who was on the mine floor when the first 16 bodies were found, said the men apparently "died of carbon monoxide poisoning. They died a painless death. It was like lying down and going to sleep."

Friends and relatives waited, hopes faltering as the long ordeal wore on. At the final announcement a mother collapsed on a cot, sobbing: "Oh my God, my son, my son!"

"I ain't got no brothers anymore," a woman wailed.

Two women fainted. Some miners cried. Other workers simply removed their hard hats and lowered their heads.

The death announcement was read at Calumet, 14 miles to the north of the isolated mine, a relatively small venture but sunk into one of the world's biggest salt domes.

Copper Miners Spurn Phelps Dodge Offer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiations prompted by President Johnson in the 239-day copper strike are continuing after the unions reportedly spurned one company's three-year contract offer to hike wages by more than $1 per hour.

Union officials, meanwhile, announced Friday they are calling a meeting of some 200 officials of all 26 striking unions next Monday "to review the situation resulting from current talks initiated by resident Johnson."

The White House said Johnson was expected to remain in his office while the negotiations continue through the weekend in the Executive Office Building next door.

Plan Bluff Development:

Golf Course Features Proposed Subdivision

By DAVE ANDREWS

A new recreationally oriented subdivision—Lake Bluff Estates—centered around an 18-hole golf course is being planned as a major tourist attraction by a group of Escanaba-Gladstone area businessmen atop the bluff between Escanaba and Gladstone.

The development, besides the golf course, also would include a spacious clubhouse open year around, a swimming pool, tennis courts, riding and snowmobile trails and eventually a lakefront marina and ski hill.

Residential lots would weave along fairways of the golf course.

Have An Idea

Matt Smith of Northern Michigan National Bank, Joseph Stankowicz of Capitol Busness Service and Marvin Poulton, owner of the Terrace, are spearheading the organization. About 50 other local businessmen have joined the project.

"Right now, all we have is an idea," Smith said.

"We're trying to create a tourist attraction in this area which would help keep the tourists here," he added. "We also would hope to be able to attract regional conventions."

Funds for the development are being placed in an escrow account in hopes of forming a corporation, Lake Bluff Development.

"It is anticipated that this will be an entirely locally-owned corporation," said Stankowicz.

In the initial stage of the project, only about one third of the available property would be developed. The remaining two thirds would be left for future expansion.

Preliminary plans have been prepared by R.C. Greaves and Associates, Inc., landscape architects and planning consultants of Milwaukee.

Lots Join Course

The golf course would stretch 6,635 yards to a par 36-36-72 and could be the site for major Upper Peninsula tournaments. Residential property would adjoin over half of the course with homes along a winding road planned through the property.

The year-around clubhouse design would provide lounge and dining facilities for either large or small groups. A golf pro shop would be included, along with the swimming pool and tennis courts.

Construction of the ski hill for winter activity and the marina on Little Bay de Noc is planned after the initial phase of construction.

Stankowicz also pointed out that the group is interested in applying for the Upper Peninsula franchise to operate a dog racing track, if a bill legalizing dog racing in Michigan passes the state legislature.

Tourist Attraction

He said that the bill provides for eight dog tracks in Michigan, one of which—if built—be located in the Upper Peninsula. The track would not be located with the main subdivision, he added, but would be placed along U.S. 2 and 41 as a tourist attraction.

Future plans call for expansion of the golf course to 27 holes. Additional residential areas and locations for multiple-unit housing also are included in the long-range plan.

Site of the proposed development is about midway between Escanaba and Gladstone, overlooking Little Bay de Noc. Access to the property would be from U.S. 2 and 41.

Political Party Service Is Topic Of Voters League

Practical politics will be the topic of discussion at a joint meeting of the morning and evening units of the Escanaba League of Women Voters next week.

Einar Erlandsen, former State Legislator, will represent the Democratic party; the local Republican chairman, Arthur Neiman, will represent the Republican party.

The speakers will be introduced by Mrs. Robert Haack, Voters Service chairman. They will discuss party philosophy and organization, the art of practical politics, and how citizens can best serve the party of their choice.

The meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. N. L. Lindquist, 1815 Lake Shore Drive, on Monday, March 11 at 8 p.m. Members are asked to bring friends.

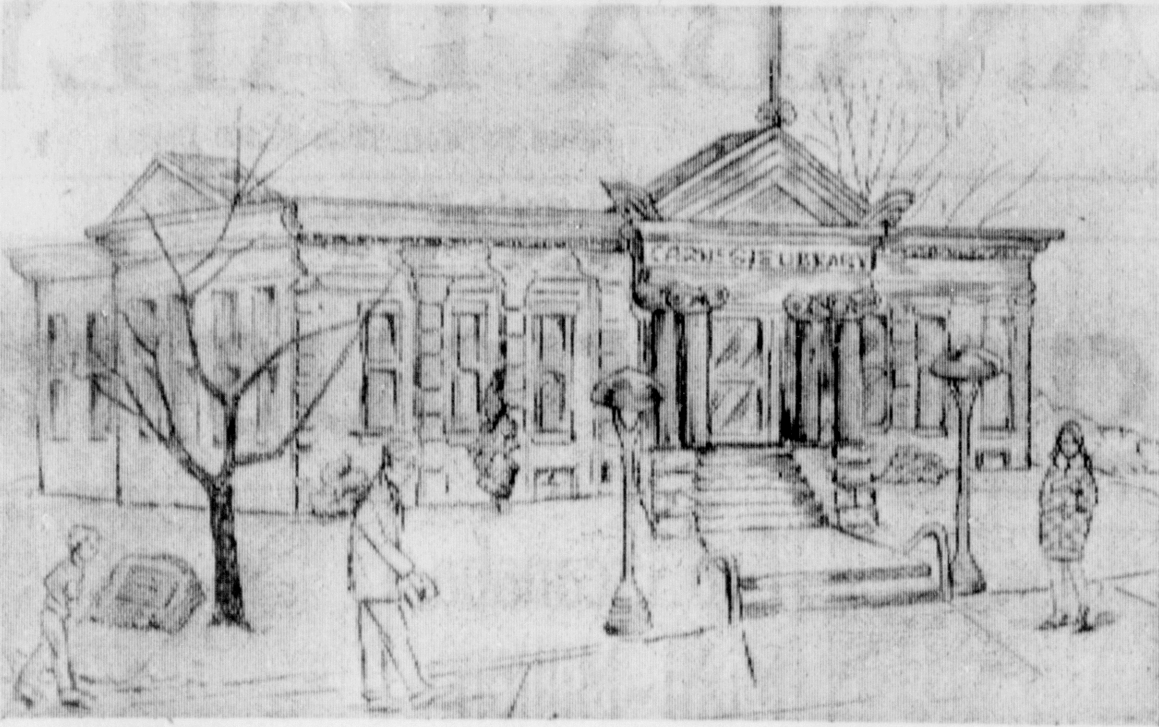

Questions have been sent to the nine candidates who are seeking election to City Council. On March 25 at a public meeting the League will interview these candidates. A representative from Bay de Noc Community College will speak on the millage election, April 1.

War Death Toll May Surpass Korea Mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. battle deaths in Vietnam have escalated to such a rate they could surpass the Korean War toll by presidential election day.

The latest rundown on Vietnam combat deaths raised the total to 19,251 through March 2. This is still 14,378 short of the Korean War mark of 33,629 killed on the battlefield.

But the toll has climbed recently to a level of around 500 a week.

If this should keep up over the 35 weeks until election day Nov. 5, the death count could top 36,000.

The Korean War lasted three years, with fighting and negotiating going on at the same time during the last two years.

The United States has been involved in the Vietnam war for more than six years, but the air war against the North and the extensive U.S. commitment on the ground are three years old.

Battle deaths have been high since the Communists opened their lunar new year offensive Jan. 30.

Record In February
The last three weeks have seen a record total of 543 combat deaths in the week ended Feb. 17, with 470 in the following week and 542 in the week ended March 2.

Whether this rate will continue—or possibly even rise—will hinge on any renewed Communist ground attacks in the cities, any North Vietnamese assault on Khe Sanh, the extent to which U.S. forces regain the offensive and the degree to which American troops must fill in gaps left by the South Vietnamese forces.

U.S. battle deaths have doubled and redoubled, reflecting the widening U.S. commitment over the years, the heavier involvement of American troops and the assumption by U.S. forces of a major combat role in the war.

Double '67 Damage
The weekly average of battle deaths for the first nine weeks of 1968 comes to 358 men. That is about double the 1967 average of 180 a week. And the 1967 average was about double the 96-a-week average in 1966.

Rates for 1965 and earlier cannot be properly stacked against those for 1966 on because the United States did not get into its first major ground battles, with their heavier combat deaths—until late 1965.

The following yearly totals of battle deaths mirror the deepening U.S. commitment:
1961 and 1962—42; 1963—78; 1964—147; 1965—1,369; 1966—5,008; 1967—9,378; first nine weeks of 1968—3,229.

Schools To Set Another Election

The Escanaba Area Board of Education is expected to set a date and proposal for another special millage election when it meets in regular session at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the school administration building.

The Board faces a major deficit for operation of the schools for the 1968-69 year unless additional revenues are obtained.

A seven-mill proposal was defeated by voters of the district last month.

In the campaign, the Board of Education indicated that this year's deficit of some $90,000 coupled with the projected budget expenses and revenues for 1968-69 would leave a deficit of about $400,000.

Supt. Luther M. Barrett reported that school attorneys have indicated an election could be called anytime from April 1 through June 10.

Administration recommendations or teachers tenure and consideration of rental of the Franklin School multi-purpose room to St. Stephen's Episcopal Church for Sunday services while a new church is being built are also listed on the agenda for action.

Thirteen other items have been listed for discussion by the board.

Troops To Join In Girl Scout Birthday Party
Ten Junior Girl Scout and Brownie troops from the south-side of Escanaba will join in a Girl Scout birthday party Tuesday from 4 to 5:30 p.m. at the Lemmer School.

National Girl Scout week is March 10-16.

Units participating in the program with their leaders listed are:

Junior Troop 83, Lemmer School, Mrs. Don Metor; Brownie Troop 36, Lemmer School, Mrs. Floyd Cassidy; Brownie Troop 50, Lemmer School, Mrs. Harold Strem; Brownie Troop 11, Lemmer School, Mrs. Ron Pertile; Brownie Troop 21, Lemmer School, Mrs. Steward Covey; Junior Troop 3, Franklin School, Mrs. William Elliott; Brownie Troop 17, Franklin School, Mrs. Ray Hermans; Junior Troop 16, St. Anne's School, Mrs. William Kelly; Junior Troop 23, Lemmer School, Mrs. Robert McDonnell; Brownie Troop 5, Jefferson School, Mrs. Edward Kuivinen.

A "Dimes for Daisy" march enabling the scouts to contribute to the World Friendship Fund will be conducted. Each patrol will supply its own lunch. Junior Scouts will provide desert.

Girl Scouting is observing its 56th year during Girl Scout Week.

Red Cross Plans Campaign To Aid Men In Vietnam

The Delta County Chapter of the American Red Cross will hold a meeting of its officers and directors Monday evening to consider plans for a campaign to aid to U.S. servicemen in Vietnam, it is announced by Cecil Chase, County Red Cross chairman.

Bruce Christy, Green Bay, Red Cross regional director, will be present to consult with the local unit on implementing the appeal for support of the servicemen and women overseas.

It is reported that the Red Cross faces a severe financial crisis and the reason is the increasing obligations to the armed forces in Vietnam.

There are more than three million men in the armed forces with more than one-half million in Vietnam, and at the moment the Red Cross has 166 field staff in Vietnam, serving with the troops in the field. In addition, 52 hospital workers and 117 young women are directing recreational programs often on "the firing line."

There are many additional Red Cross workers serving in 30 other countries and at major installations in this country.

The Red Cross needs $121-624,000 to continue its job, with part of this amount raised through United Funds, Community Chest and other drives such as the Delta United Services.

There is the need to conduct a special March appeal to help each chapter raise its contributions to the special need — SOS — Support Our Servicemen, Chairman Chase said.

Registrants within the driving area of the event will be charged the registration fee and for dinners on Friday and Saturday. Information on accommodations and the program of lectures and discussions headed by faculty from the Universities at Ann Arbor and Madison is available. Inquiries are invited by Charles Folio, assistant director, University of Michigan Extension Service, P.O. Box 394, Escanaba, or Mrs. D. J. Blazer, University Extension Coordinator for Continuing Adult Education at the University of Wisconsin-Marquette County Center, Bay Shore Road, Marquette.

Previous "Weekends with the Professors," sponsored by the U of M Extension Service have taken place annually since 1965. Two have been held in Escanaba and one in Iron Mountain.

NOTICE CORNELL TOWNSHIP Board of Review

John Slapp, commercial teacher of the Escanaba Area Senior High School, will speak to the Delta County Historical Society at its membership program meeting to be held at the Chamber of Commerce building the evening of March 20.

Slapp has a collection of typewriters and office machines of other years and has made a study of their invention and development. Machines from his collection will be displayed.

Charles Folio, program chairman, will present the speaker, and Historical Society members are invited to bring friends. The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. A social hour will follow the program.

Police Break Up Tire Theft Ring

JACKSON (AP) — Michigan State Police said Friday they had broken up a tire theft ring which operated in the Jackson area.

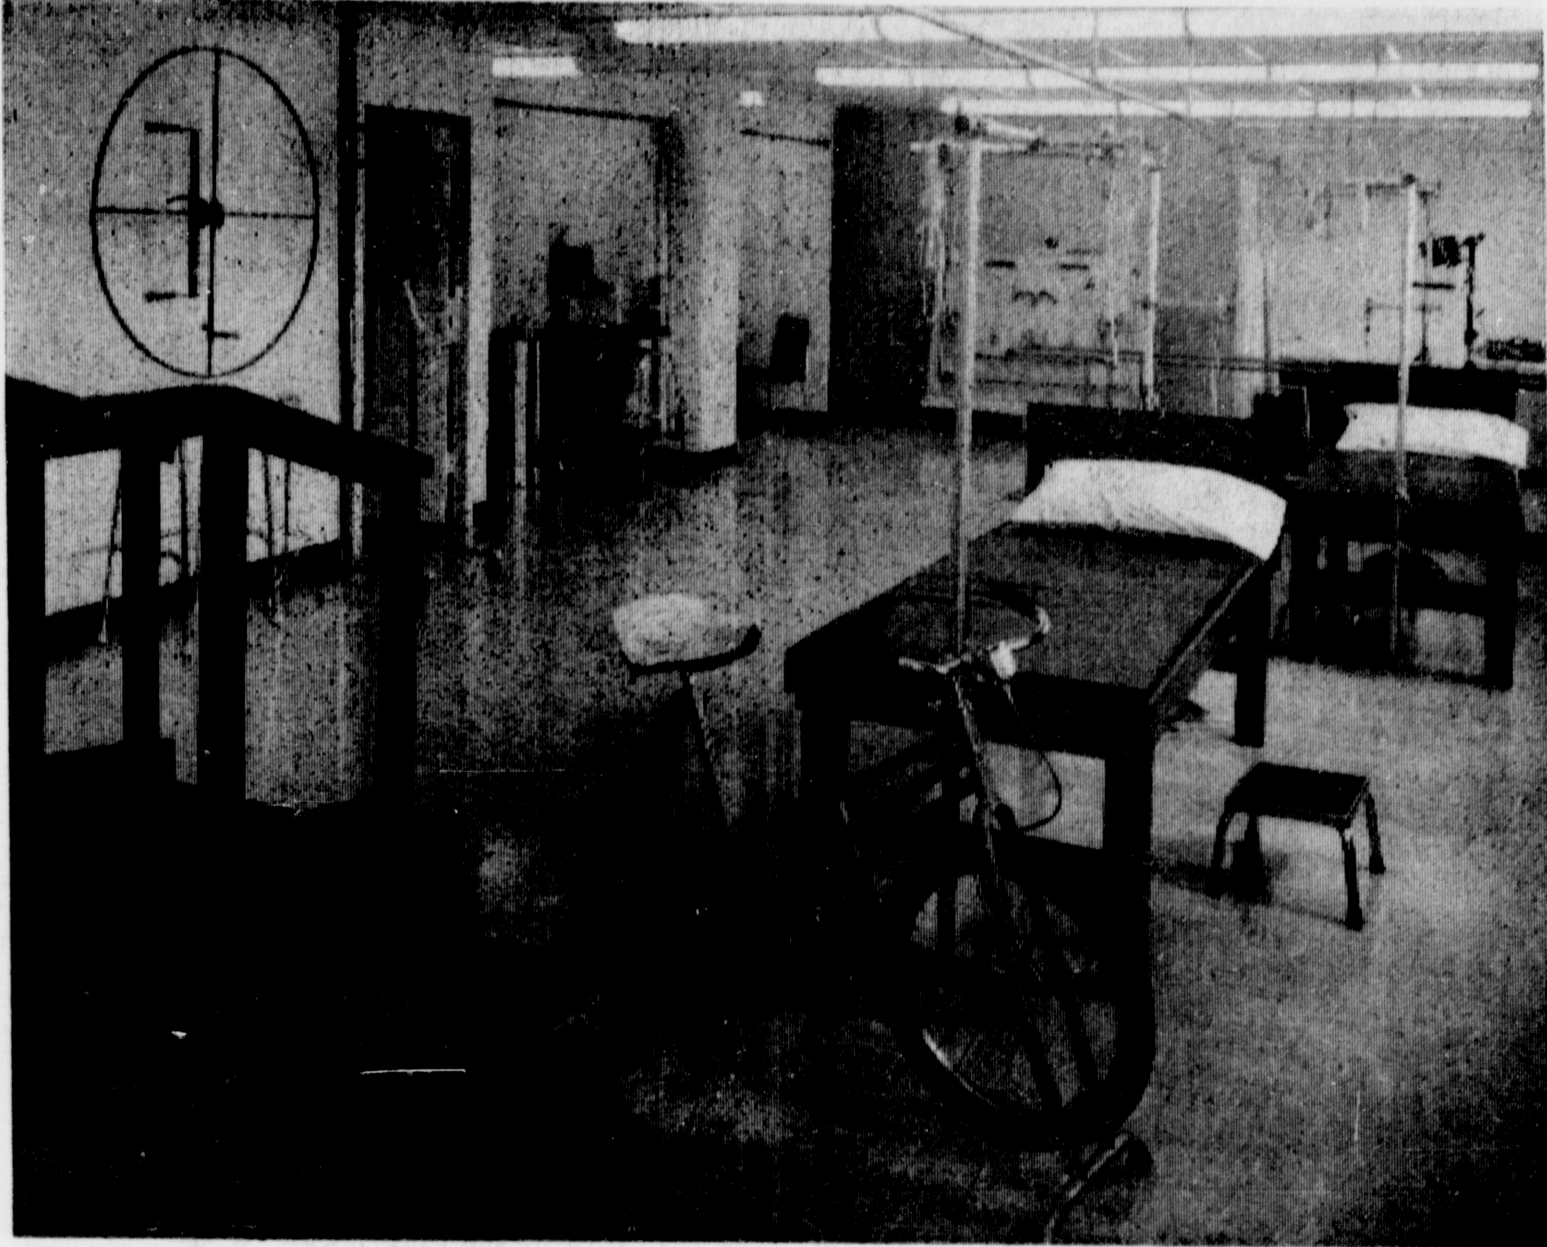

Nearly 70 tires were stolen from outside gas stations at Jackson, Chelsea and Albion within the last month.

Three Jackson-area youths have been charged with grand larceny in connection with the thefts. They were identified by police as Thomas J. Loring and John C. King, both 18, and Daniel D. Derr, 20.

Derr and King already had been convicted of breaking and entering in connection with a burglary at nearby Spring Arbor College and were awaiting sentencing when charged with grand larceny.

Target Date Is May 15:

Plan Start Of Mediocenter Project

MEDICENTERS PROVIDE VARIED treatment programs to enable physicians to continue the care appropriate to the needs of the patients. These include physical therapy (a typical physical therapy room in a medicenter facility is pictured), inhalation therapy, diagnostic x-ray department for in-patients and out-patients, pharmacy and laboratory services.

The construction of a Mediocenter facility in Escanaba is hoped to be started by May 15, it is announced by Willow Creek Development Corp., which holds the Mediocenter franchise here.

The Mediocenter, one of a rapidly growing list of such facilities across the country, will be located west of and across the street from Doctors Park. The building is expected to be completed in about six or seven months after construction starts. The cost will be about $540,000.

Care for patients who do not need all of the services of a hospital, but who do need specialized services for further recuperation are provided in Mediocenters. A 60-bed facility, plus dining room, kitchen and day room will be constructed in the first phase of the project.

After the facility is up and operating, and if there is a need shown, a second 60-bed center will be planned, Willow Creek Development Corp. has indicated.

Select Furnishings

Joe Brooks, manager of contract services for Mediocenters, Inc., Memphis, Tenn., in recent meeting with the Development Corp. officers and directors in Escanaba, was advised on the selection of furnishings for the facility here.

Brooks said that no matter what the choice of colors or fabrics, Mediocenter interiors are designed for the comfort of the patients. The decor is attractive, the colors cheerful, and the furnishings modern.

In the short history of Mediocenters of America, Inc., (the company was formed in 1965) there has been phenomenal growth.

The first Mediocenter was opened in November, 1965, and there are now 11 in operation and 14 more under construction, with a number of these soon to open.

Growing Program

"Depending on weather conditions it takes six or seven months to complete the construction of a Mediocenter," he explained. "A new center will open in Nashville on March 15, and others will open at Gary, Ind., and at Augusta, Ga., about April 15."

Besides the facility at Escanaba, three others are in prospect in Michigan, which are among some 25 additional Mediocenters to be started this year and planned to be completed in 1969. Some of the Mediocenter franchises are held by hospitals, Brooks reported.

The Mediocenter program is designed to provide inpatient care between intensive hospitalization and a return to a normal and active life; and the facility is available to patients 15 and over regardless of the length of the stay.

A registered nurse will be on duty 24 hours a day seven days a week. There will be day rooms, TV lounges, visiting lounges, barber and beauty shops, selective menu, physical therapy department, and other conveniences for the patients.

Tax Refunds

John L. Greene, savings bonds chairman of Delta County, reminds taxpayers that the Treasury Department offers opportunity to take income tax refunds in United States savings bonds. The savings option, introduced in 1963, is in addition to the two standard options of taking tax refunds in cash or applying them to next year's tax.

Delta 4-H Plans Achievement Day

All of the Delta County 4-H community clubs will soon start their local achievement programs soon, when 4-H youth display and model clothing and are recognized for the projects they have worked on during the winter months.

The programs are open to the public. The 13 different programs take place in March and early April.

On April 20 the winners in talent competition from the community clubs participate in an all County Talent Show, which will be held at the Escanaba Junior High School auditorium, from 1 to 3 p.m.

April 27, all the girls in clothing and knitting projects ages 9-19 will model their garments in a County Style Show. The four top talent numbers selected from the Talent Show will perform at this Style Show. The show will begin at 7 p.m., in the Junior High School Auditorium.

These two events are followed by an all County Awards Banquet for 4-H young people and adult leaders, when member and leader awards are announced. This will take place May 5.

The public is invited to attend the community Achievement programs.

Dick Gregory's Bias

Dick Gregory is a sometimes deadly serious comedian, as he demonstrated at Northern Michigan University the other night. In an overlong discourse on the state of the world, Gregory used a shotgun approach to blast at everything from the racial crisis to rabbit hunting, from the war in Vietnam to carnivorousism, from President Johnson's character to cigarette smoking.

It was a strange performance, sometimes humorous, sometimes ludicrous, sometimes tragic, sometimes pathetic. And when it had finally ended, the listener was left with a broad spectrum of impressions.

Gregory depicts himself as a sort of neo-Gandhiist, a firm personal believer in non-violence. But his public utterances on such matters as racial rioting are so inflammatory that they might well be interpreted as endorsements of violence.

While embracing a philosophy of non-violence, he defends Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown, whose pronouncements and behavior can scarcely be considered docile. In short, Gregory has cast his lot with the extremists, thereby damaging his cause just as surely as anyone advocating the Ku Klux Klan has wrecked his hopes of effective leadership in solving the racial conflict.

Although Gregory is a man of obviously exceptional intelligence and sensitivity, he does not hesitate to resort to vulgarism, absurd accusations and gross overstatements in presenting his case. These sometimes have a certain amount of shock value, but they crumble under analysis.

As an example: Gregory said at Marquette that the biggest cause of racial strife is not white racism, as the President's Commission on Civil Disorders found after its exhaustive study; not unequal educational opportunities for Negroes; not job discrimination; not any of the leading causes uncovered in studies of this most critical of all American problems. No, the principal cause, according to Gregory, is "politicians."

If these views were all that Gregory had to offer, his speeches certainly wouldn't be worth listening to. But in his scattergun approach, he hits some other targets, some that are exceedingly vulnerable.

Unfortunately, a lot of Gregory's views are entirely too reflective of the horrible state of race relations in America today. His catalogue of crimes of white against Negro makes for a chilling recital, and who can successfully argue with Gregory when he indicts this nation for its intolerance, injustice, inhumanity against black America? Who can defend with logic his accusations against a society that condoned slavery and then, when it abolished slavery, substituted a new bondage for the descendants of slaves?

Gregory performs a service in pointing up the blind cruelty of racism, but having done so, he has an obligation to his audience also to suggest solutions, and of these there were none in his speech in Marquette. There were warnings like those in James Baldwin's "The Fire Next Time" about what will happen unless something is done about this national disgrace, and these warnings were delivered either with biting humor or dramatic force. But they were not accompanied by any constructive prescription for removing the cancer.

Gregory ridiculed the "white Northern liberals" who have worked with "The Movement." He disparaged the report by the Civil Disorders Commission. He berated "politicians" generically, presumably including even those who have labored sincerely to improve the Negroes' lot through due process of law.

In short, he castigated many who have tried to erase the shame of racism and reserved his praise only for the Carmichaels and Browns. It was an exercise in negativism, executed with grim humor but with little else to commend it.

One Word Blamed For Romney Loss

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Gov. George W. Romney of Michigan was beaten before he ever launched into 1968 campaigning for the Republican nomination—and his use of the word "brainwash" delivered the decisive blow to his candidacy.

In a relatively obscure taped television interview around Labor Day, 1967, Romney said he thought he had been brainwashed by Johnson administration officials when he and other governors visited Vietnam in late 1965.

Much later, Romney told a friend: "That came right off the top of my head."

The first stories reporting the interview buried the comment eight paragraphs deep. But at a GOP National Committee meeting here only days afterward, the word "brainwashed" traveled the party political circuit like a distress code on the high seas.

More important still, it was a man-in-the-street word. Within days, businessmen, cab drivers, clerks, waitresses and housewives were asking: "How can a man ask to be president who says he can be brainwashed?"

To reporters who had been covering Romney's national travels for nearly a year, "brainwash" was merely the most dramatic of many Romney utterances which they felt suggested a consistent lack of grasp of foreign affairs generally and Vietnam in particular.

But the professional opinion samplers now confirm that this was the turning point—the moment at which the American voting public concluded for itself that George Romney was not equipped to handle the great issues as a president must do.

A poll taken in New Hampshire in the spring of 1967 found voters placing Romney high on the leadership scale. A similar poll in that state in December, three months after "brainwash," revealed a serious reversal. Symbolized by that statement, his evident inability to handle Vietnam and other big issues gave the voters strong negative perceptions of the governor as a prospective leader.

In percentage terms, this switch was devastating. Romney had a bare 13 per cent of support among the Republican voters, against 63 per cent for Nixon. Richard Nixon's aides refused to accept the figures as valid, dismissing them as a "snow job" intended to pave the way for a spectacular winter upsurge by Romney. But they were quite real.

Two midwinter telephone polls taken in New Hampshire indicated no measurable improvement after the governor began actively campaigning there. But the crucial moment came when another poll disclosed that Nixon at February's close stood at 70.3 per cent to Romney's 11.5 and New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's 8.4 per cent.

The negative perceptions of Romney as leader seemed set in concrete, which is why he was beaten before he started.

The brutal irony is that Romney the New Hampshire and Wisconsin campaigner was much improved over the verbalizer who stumbled his way across the continent from Alaska to Georgia in 1967. It was too late. The voters were tuned out and looking elsewhere.

Romney's Southeast Asia neutralization plan and other 1968 views on Vietnam and related matters were well thought out, articulately presented and doggedly defended against hard questioning. It made absolutely no difference, as the polls showed.

All this is clearly surface manifestation. The underlying puzzle is: How could a man be so unprepared for the big issues who stood out as a three-term governor of a great industrial state, the savior of a major company, a prime mover in endless civic endeavors? His friends and one or two of his biographers offer suggestive evidence. He is a self-made man who rose to considerable heights despite a sketchy education, whose narrow limits were made more rigid by the heavy influence of his sturdy Mormon upbringing.

Unlike the ever-plausible Nixon, Romney throughout his public life never seemed to theorize well from a neatly structured body of thought on the great issues. Says one Romney watcher: "George has always arrived at solutions to problems by what I call the theory of successive approximations."

By that the friend meant that the governor fired off ideas like space missiles, missing his target, redirecting the missile for another try, missing again, though more narrowly, until finally he struck home and had a solution.

Within the orbit of a company or even a state, says this friend, Romney could get by with this special problem-solving technique. To critics, furthermore, he had one unanswerable rejoinder: It worked. Sooner or later, and his record stood there to prove it.

But the presidential scene is like no other arena. As a mere prospect, Romney could not work toward solutions but only verbalize possible answers. And as he went about his "approximations," he let the whole nation in on what seemed like a "stream-of-consciousness" process. Every fumble, every hesitant sentence was laid bare.

Had he kept a close counsel during his long months of "miss and try again" on Vietnam and related issues, the damage might have been minimized. But Romney the salesman and Mormon evangelist took over. He could not resist taking newsmen and the public on a guided tour as he struggled for answers.

The tour was an odyssey of political self-destruction. It took an able, earnest, upright, good-hearted public servant from the peak of public esteem to the depths of poignant defeat in a bare 15 months.

Dorothy Hayden's book entitled "Bid Better, Play Better" has just appeared in a paper-back edition. Like all bridge books, we can't endorse everything in it, but we can state that there is a great deal of good bridge common sense in it.

Today's hand, taken from it, shows how to bid a grand slam by locating specific cards in partner's hand by cue bids.

Some players wouldn't open the South hand with a forcing bid. The Jacobys aren't included in that group. True, you can set up a North hand that won't let South make game somewhere, but bridge players should not wait for absolute certainties.

Once South does open with two spades North is interested in a slam but should not make any really aggressive move. Instead he should raise to three spades to show strength and spade support.

At this point South assumes that there will be no losers in trumps and wants to locate two key cards—the ace of diamonds and the king of clubs. Blackwood will let him find out how many aces and kings North holds, but he doesn't care about how many. He needs to know about those two special cards.

He bids four clubs and North should go to four diamonds. This bid clearly shows the ace. North has already set spades as the suit. South follows with four hearts to show first round heart control. It makes no difference to North whether South is showing the ace or a void. North should bid five clubs. Once more, North isn't trying to get into clubs. He is showing second round control.

This is enough for South. He goes to the grand slam and spreads his hand as soon as East follows to the first trick.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been: West North East South 1 ♠ Pass Pass Dble Pass Pass 2 ♦ ?

You, South, hold: ♠ A Q 8 7 ♥ 3 2 ♦ K J 9 8 ♣ Q 5 3

What do you do now? A—Double. Your double of one heart was minimum but you have three probable trump tricks in diamonds.

TODAY'S QUESTION

West passes, your partner bids two hearts; East passes. What do you do? Answer Monday

South Korea has attained a sharp increase in tourism. The number of visitors each year has nearly tripled since 1965; air flights have doubled. Half a dozen modern hotels are rising and others are being improved.

The moon appears cold and lifeless, but evidence collected in 1967 by the Surveyor V spacecraft indicates that the earth's satellite was warm in the past.

Ann Landers

Children Suffer If Mother Is A Lush

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 17-year-old girl who hopes you will continue to print letters about alcoholism and the harm it does. This is what happened at our house last week.

When I got home from school Mom was in bed, which was not unusual. At dinner time she didn't get up and I figured she was sleeping off a hang-over so I started to fix supper for Dad and us kids. Dad came home at six and went in to check Mom. He came out of the bedroom white as a ghost. "Mom's dead," he said and went to the phone and called the police. When he returned to the bedroom he yelled, "She moved—call the police and tell them not to come. Call the doctor instead."

Well, the police came anyway, and so did the doctor and so did the newspapers, and it made the front page and everyone is talking about it. My sister and I can't hold up our heads at school and my father is ready to change jobs because everybody at the garage where he works is making jokes. People are going to talk about this forever and there's nothing we can do about it. Please print my letter as another example of how alcoholism hurts the whole family. — S-4

Dear S-4: Here's your letter and the address of an organization that can help YOU. Write to Alateen, P.O. Box 182, Madison Square Station, New York, New York 10010. Kids who live with alcoholism need strength, courage and information. This group offers all three — in abundance.

Dear Ann Landers: Yesterday we had dinner at my cousin's house. She had her Christmas cards still pinned to the dining room draperies. I asked her if she planned to carry the Christmas spirit into Easter. "Oh," she sighed, "I can't throw the cards out until I record the names of the senders."

When I asked what that was all about, she explained that the record is for next year. Her reply was, "We send cards only to people who have sent cards to us the previous year." I then asked if she ever sent a card to a person just because she wanted to wish him well. She replied, "Are you kidding? The whole thing is a pain in the ankle. We send cards because we HAVE to — and so does everyone else."

This is such a hardboiled approach it made me wonder how much of the world operates this way. What do you think? — V-2

Allergies Cause Ear Problems

One of the most stubborn of all ear disorders—chronic serious otitis—is often caused by allergy. This is what Dr. Kenneth L. Craft of Indianapolis told physicians at a recent meeting.

An otolaryngologist (ear doctor) and allergist, Dr. Craft said that all parts of the ear can become sensitized by allergy. House dust, cigarette smoke, pollens, molds, foods—all can cause allergic reactions that may lead to hearing impairment. In many cases hearing improves when the offending allergy is uncovered and treated.

Mia Has No Comment On Separation

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Frank Sinatra's estranged wife, blonde Mia Farrow, flew into Miami early today where Sinatra was performing but refused to say if the trial separation was ended.

Airline employees tried to shield Miss Farrow from newsmen by removing her from the plane down an outside ladder to an airline truck.

The 22-year-old actress cut short her meditation in India with Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, leaving the guru after six weeks.

Miss Farrow and the 31-year-old Sinatra mutually agreed to a trial separation Nov. 22, 1967, according to James Mahoney, press agent for both performers.

At the airport in Miami Miss Farrow clenched her teeth and refused to acknowledge questions from newsmen about her plans and whether she would see Sinatra, who is filming a movie and singing at a Miami Beach hotel. There was no comment from Sinatra but in Los Angeles, Mahoney said there had been no attempt at reconciliation or communication since the separation.

Miss Farrow's silken blonde hair still was cut in the boyish style she adopted during her romance with Sinatra. She wore a blue and white poncho-style cloak.

Miss Farrow is scheduled to go to London to begin shooting the movie "Secret Ceremony" with Elizabeth Taylor March 11.

Copper Price Is 63 Cents A Pound

NEW YORK (AP)—Revere Copper & Brass, Inc., said Friday it is raising most brass-mill products to a level based on 63 cents a pound of contained copper.

The action, effective Thursday, represents an increase of one cent a pound of copper content.

Copper users are paying from 50 cents to 90 cents a pound for copper raw materials during the long U.S. copper strike.

Chase Brass & Copper Co., a Kennecott Copper Corp. subsidiary, instituted the 63-cent pricing base last month.

The Care of Your Clothes

by your Sanitone Certified Master Drycleaner

Can your dress be drycleaned?

Ann McGovern

In the frenetic scrambling of the world of fashion, new materials are being used for dresses every day — leather, metallics, vinyl, other plastics.

If you have an "in" dress made of some of those "way out" materials, you might wonder how well it can be drycleaned. Perhaps you've heard that some drycleaning makes vinyl harden and crack. Years ago, you may have had a bad experience with the drycleaning of genuine suede.

What's the answer? It varies. By fabric, by material, by color, by styling. But keeping up to date on all of this is a part of our business.

This much we can tell you — our Sanitone dry cleaning is the best and safest you can get. It will make colors brighter, whites whiter. And it will give synthetics and natural fibres alike a new softness that makes them feel new again.

If you're wondering whether your dress can be drycleaned, we can tell you. If we can't, we'll say so. (But we'll match our ability and skill against anyone else in town.)

When you need an expert opinion, stop in. We'll furnish the expert who's as interested in the proper care of your clothes as you are.

U.S. - Swedish Relations Cool; Envoy Recalled

WASHINGTON (AP) — A coolness in relations in U.S.-Swedish relations over the American role in Vietnam has prompted Washington to recall its ambassador to Stockholm for discussions.

Ambassador William Heath, whose life was recently threatened, will fly home Monday for an indefinite stay to review "all aspects of U.S.-Swedish relations," the State Department said Friday.

The department said "he will return to Stockholm in due course."

Officials acknowledged the recall reflects U.S. displeasure over relations with Sweden.

Prime Minister Tage Erlander said he told Heath Sweden wants to maintain as good relations as possible with the United States.

One incident apparently leading to the recall occurred Feb. 21, when Sweden's education minister, Olof Palme, marched with other demonstrators opposed to the U.S. military campaign in Vietnam. The demonstrators also included North Vietnam's ambassador to Moscow.

Sources in Washington said Palme made a "one-sided and critical" speech asserting there is a legitimate civil war in Vietnam. The United States contends South Vietnam is the victim of aggression by North Vietnam.

The United States did not formally protest the Palme incident but the American Embassy in Stockholm made clear such behavior by a cabinet minister was considered highly inappropriate.

Sweden has been the scene of steadily increasing violent incidents and demonstrations over the past year related to the Vietnam issue, culminating with receipt of a letter threatening Heath's life. Police assigned a bodyguard to the American diplomat.

Swedish reaction to news of the recall included agreement by opposition parties that the United States had taken a serious, regrettable step. The opposition groups also criticized Sweden's governing Social Democratic party over the incident.

Suit On School Tax Dismissed

MARQUETTE — Circuit Judge Bernard H. Davidson Friday dismissed the Upper Peninsula Generating Co.'s lawsuit for recovery of $375,852.46 paid in school taxes for the last three years, but held that the Marquette Board of Education is subject to provision of the 15-mill constitutional tax limitation.

Also approved as valid was the retroactive vote on Jan. 9 of this year confirming the millage rate set for school taxes raised since last July.

The judge's ruling that the school board is "not exempt" from the 15-mill tax limitation set by the 1963 state constitution means, in brief, that the board hereafter will have to ask voters to approve extra millage above the amount allocated to it by the county tax allocation board.

Under a second proposition approved in the Jan. 8 election, the board now has authority to raise 16 extra mills for school operations in 1968 and 1969.

The board previously had operated under a special 1905 charter which permitted it to determine and assess the amount it needed to meet operating expenses. Under provisions of that charter, it did not need to ask voter approval for extra millage, as other school districts have done.

Grant

HOUGHTON — The Rev. William F. McGee of Houghton has been selected by the trustees of the Danforth Foundation to receive a 1968 Danforth Campus Ministry Grant for graduate study. Fr. McGee, a native of Marquette, is pastor of St. Albert the Great Catholic Student Parish at Michigan Tech.

In September he will begin an 11-month residence as a visiting scholar at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, Cal., where his major study areas will be theology, sacred scripture and pastoral counseling.

CHARLES MARTIN, left, 20, and his girl companion, Sandra Goachee, 13, both of Grand Rapids, are led from the LaPorte, Ind., County Jail. They were returned to Grand Rapids and held in custody in connection with the slaying of two service station attendants, Martin, who police said was from Sharon, Pa., but had been living in Grand Rapids, was charged with two counts of murder. Police Chief Joseph T. Bancovich, of Walker, a suburb west of Grand Rapids, where the slayings took place, said the girl would be charged as a juvenile delinquent and turned over to youth authorities. (AP Wirephoto)

Plane Plunges In Lake; Believe Six Persons Die

CHICAGO (AP) — Edward H. Litchfield, board chairman of SCM Corp., was killed and five other persons, including members of his family, were believed to have perished Friday night when their two-engine plane plunged into fog-shrouded Lake Michigan while coming in for a landing.

The body of Litchfield, 53, of Coudersport, Pa., a former chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh, was recovered at midmorning today five miles off Meigs Field, Chicago's lakefront airport.

The crew of the Coast Guard boat that recovered the body did not report sighting any wreckage of the plane or other bodies.

Others aboard the plane were Litchfield's wife, Mary, 42; his mother, Ethel, 81; their children, Edward, 10, and De Forest, 4, and the pilot, James Looker, 43, of Wellsville, N.Y. Litchfield's body was identified by R.T. O'Neill of Munster, Ind., brother-in-law of Mary Litchfield. He had been waiting at the airport for the plane to arrive.

The plane reportedly took off from Wellsville, N.Y., and was due to land at Meigs Field Friday night. The Coast Guard said the plane received landing instructions from Meigs Field but did not land.

Two Coast Guard boats started a search immediately. Three search planes and a Fire Department helicopter stood by but could not join in the search because of fog.

Smith-Carona Marchant I. J. Tarantini said Litchfield and his wife had been vacationing in Central America. He said they flew to Wellsville Friday to pick up his mother and the two boys.

ITU Will Strike Detroit Papers

DETROIT (AP) — The International Typographical Union voted 401-16 Friday night to strike the idled Detroit News and Detroit Free Press as the union president charged the publishers have failed to negotiate.

Also Friday, Teamsters Union officials began informing their employees who work for the News about terms for a new contract.

Officials of Teamsters Local 372 agreed to a tentative settlement with the Detroit News early Friday, when two non-economic items were added to the contract.

William J. Croteau, president of the ITU local, said the union may begin striking the two newspapers on Monday.

Croteau said at the last meeting a week ago between the ITU and the publishers, the "publishers refused to discuss our problems or their own problems." He said they offered a $27 a week three-year package.

Paper Mill, Ore Terminal Face Deadlines

financed, not by the local government.

The prospect today appeared to be that the Escanaba Paper Co. bond issue would be finalized and not subject to the order by the time of the cutoff next Friday.

As for the North Western issue, the city has published its intent to issue the bonds and city officials are expected to confer with representatives of Miller, Canfield, Paddock & Stone, Detroit bonding counsel, early next week before the deadline on the problem created by the Treasury ruling.

Status Indicated
In the case of the paper company, at least, the Internal Revenue Service, which administers the income tax, has indicated that the prospective issue is eligible for tax free status.

Michigan's industrial developers looked upon tax free bonds with mixed emotions, but thought as long as other states offered such inducements to industry that Michigan must do it too to be competitive. Nearly 40 states now offer industry such bonding.

Wisconsin has been fighting it. Developers said that as soon as all states offered industrial bonds the advantage would be lost. Some states, like Arkansas, also adjust taxes as an inducement to industrial location. Michigan's new constitution prohibits such tax juggling.

School Finance Reform Asked

ANN ARBOR (AP) — There is a basic weakness in relying on repeated elections to decide school financing issues, the state's school chief told a conference of educators at Ann Arbor Friday.

Supt. Ira Polley told the 20th annual Conference of School Board Members and School Administrators that education of children is the most precious item entrusted to society.

Polley said a recently completed school finance study recommends what it calls "one rational solution to the problem."

"That would be a statewide property tax whose proceeds would be distributed on a per-pupil basis to all districts for operating purposes," he said.

"Isn't it completely ironic, or perhaps even bordering on insanity, that we subject this invaluable commodity to the test of repeated elections?" Polley asked.

Too often, he said, education issues "become victims of ire of voters resulting from other issues often completely unrelated."

"A taxpayer who comes home after a rough day at the shop or office, who finds his dinner burned, who discovers that the television tube blew out that afternoon, who reads unusually harsh news about the way things are going in Vietnam, and who has to make out his income tax that evening may be inclined to take a pretty dim view of the fact that his schools are seeking renewal of an eight-mill levy for operation," Polley said.

Rockefeller has consistently said he is not a candidate for the Republican nomination for president. However, he has indicated that he would accept a draft if a genuine movement developed within the GOP.

Rocky Calls GOP Leaders

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has asked a group of Republican party leaders to meet with him in New York Sunday afternoon "to exchange views on the situation of the party" following Gov. George Romney's withdrawal from the GOP presidential race.

A statement by the governor's press secretary, Leslie Slat, said that between 20 and 25 GOP leaders from all parts of the country had been invited to the session. He declined to identify any of them or to state the time of the meeting on Sunday. He said the session would be held in Rockefeller's Fifth Avenue apartment.

Rockefeller has consistently said he is not a candidate for the Republican nomination for president. However, he has indicated that he would accept a draft if a genuine movement developed within the GOP.

Fair Housing Bill Ready For Final Vote On Monday

WASHINGTON (AP) — After more than seven weeks of debate, the Senate has forged a civil rights bill which is ready for a final vote. A major provision would outlaw discrimination in the sale or rental of most of the nation's housing.

"I think we got as much in this field as we had any right to hope for," Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Friday after the last of the amendments was voted. He termed the open-housing section an upset victory for its supporters.

The Senate approved the amended version 61 to 19, opening the way for a vote on passage Monday.

As the bill now stands, its principal provisions would:

—Gradually prohibit discrimination in the sale and rental of housing. When fully effective Jan. 1, 1970, the ban would cover nearly 70 per cent of the nation's housing units.

—Provide federal penalties for interfering by force or threats with the right to vote, serve on juries, use public accommodations, attend public schools and engage in other specifically protected activities.

—Make it a federal crime to cross a state line with intent to incite a riot, to obstruct firemen and policemen engaged in suppressing a riot, or to transport in interstate commerce or teach how to make and use firearms, explosives and incendiary devices in riots.

—Extend to American Indians the protections of the Bill of Rights.

Mansfield told reporters he had not thought it would be possible to get a bill through the Senate with open-housing provisions.

He said Sens. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., and Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., deserve "the lion's share of the credit."

They were the principal sponsors of an open-housing proposal that would have covered virtually all of the nation's housing.

Under a compromise worked out with Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who at first opposed any legislation in this field, the coverage was cut back.

The chief exemption provided by the compromise is for individual homeowners who handle the sale or rental of their property themselves, rather than using a real-estate broker.

Service Station Is Burglarized; Safe Battered

The Holiday Station Store at 1301 Ludington St. was entered sometime Friday night by burglars who made off with some cash and a considerable quantity of merchandise, it is reported by city police.

Don Boyce, manager, discovered the breaking and entering this morning and notified police.

Officers said that entry was gained through a rear door, and once inside the thieves worked on the safe, forcing open the top section from which they took about $10, but were unable to break open the bottom part of the safe.

The cash register was forced open and a quantity of merchandise was taken. The extent of the loss will be determined by inventory later.

Accord Reached On Lake Cleanup

CHICAGO (AP) — Officials of four states and the federal government wound up Friday a discussion of the first draft of a plan to curb pollution of Lake Michigan.

The chairman, Murray Stein, chief enforcement officer of the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration, commented: "We have substantial agreement on how we are going to clean up the lake."

"We are on our way to saving Lake Michigan," he told a news conference, "if everyone will cooperate with us—industry, states and the federal government."

Stein and conferees from Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois spent two days going over, point by point, a cooperative plan to squeeze down on the flow of chemicals, sewage, oil and industrial wastes into the lake.

They arranged to meet again

Tuesday in Ann Arbor, Mich., to reconsider, and possibly rewrite, the detailed plans.

The conferees agreed Friday to a meeting of representatives of the four states within two months to agree upon uniform rules for controlling waste from boats.

The regulations will conform generally with a Chicago ordinance and the code adopted by the Michigan Water Resources Commission. The Chicago law forbids boaters to throw waste into a harbor.

The conferees also agreed, in principle, to try to halt the dumping of polluted dredgings into the lake.

That phase involves the federal government. The Army Corps of Engineers dredges harbors in deepening them, and it gets its assignments from Congress. The Corps now is experimenting with disposing of polluted dredgings on land.

A spokesman for the Corps said it has no plans to dump such material this year in the lake off Illinois and Indiana.

The conference delayed until Tuesday a suggestion that the four states and the federal government contribute money to rent trawlers to remove live alewives from the lake.

Class B Prep Fives Win In Easy Fashion

By The Associated Press
The only two teams rated by the Associated Press Class B high school basketball poll had little difficulty defending their positions Friday night, but in Classes C and D upstarts were a bit more troublesome.

Chesaning, rated fifth in Class B, beat unranked Swartz Creek 86-68 behind the 30-point sharpshooting of Larry Daneek. And Detroit DePorres, rated ninth, defeated Detroit Cathedral 67-55 after having a bit of trouble staying ahead in the first half.

Three of the rated Class C teams, Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart, Fowler and Detroit St. Hedwig, beat back unranked challengers to win their district tournaments, but 10th-rated Crystal Falls fell to Stambaugh, 70-66, after leading most of the way by as many as 13 points.

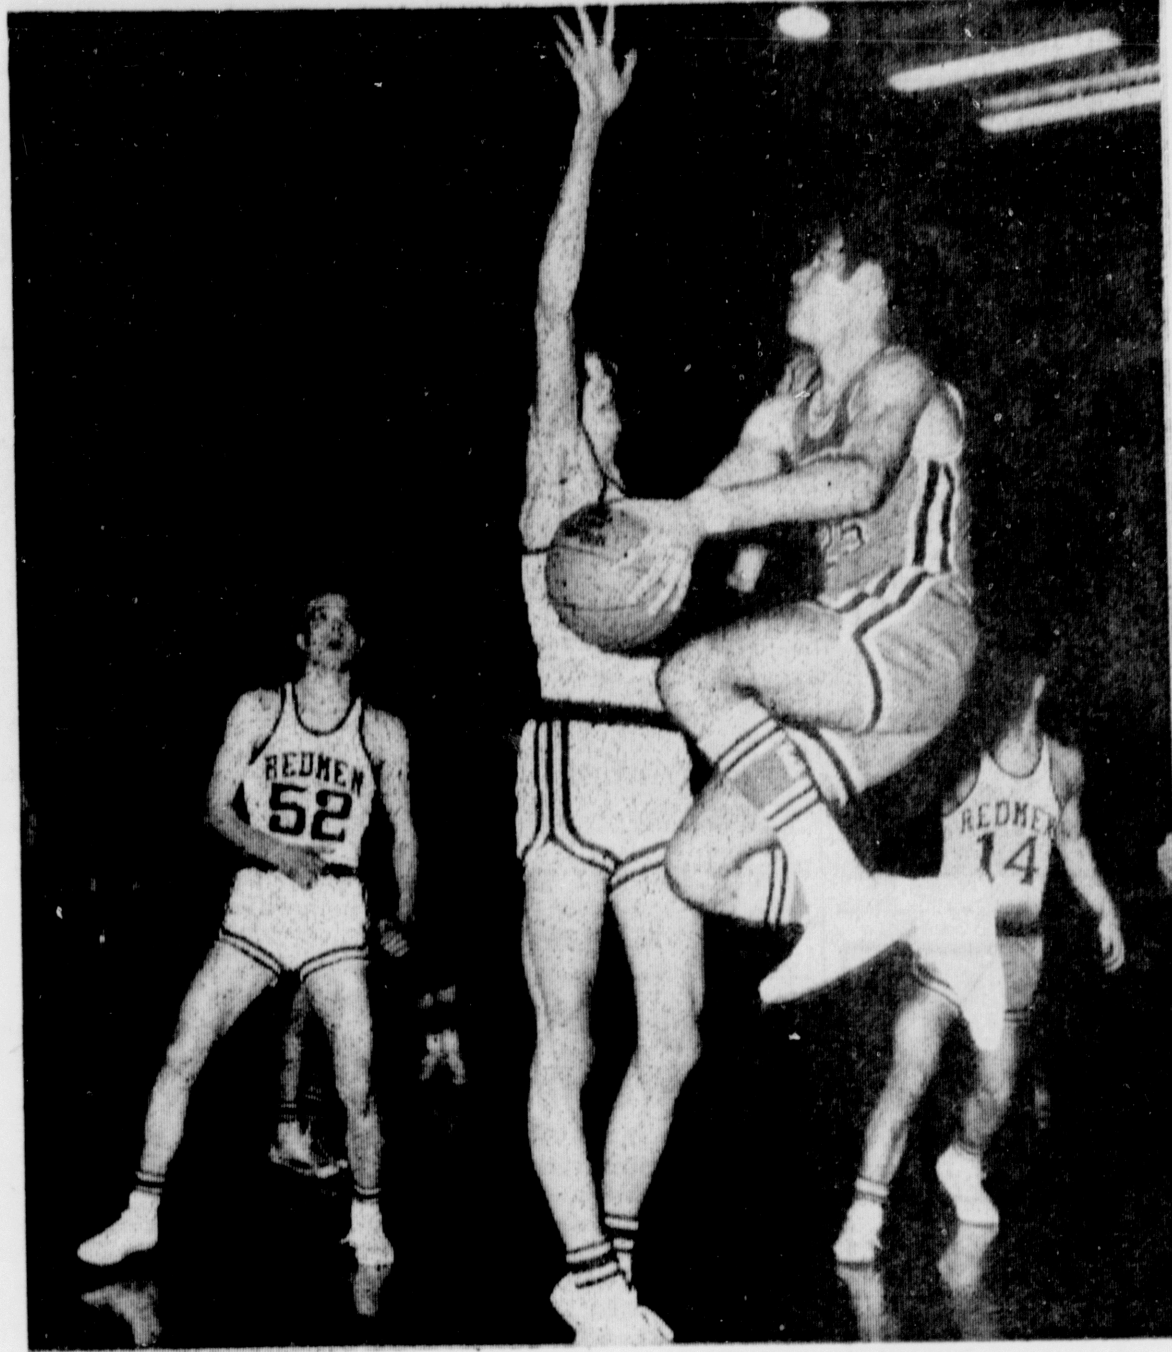

Fowler, ranked seventh in the AP poll, defeated Pewamo-Westphalia 72-50. No. 3 Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart beat Farwell 92-47 and eighth-rated St. Hedwig downed Detroit St. Andrew 72-54.

Unrated Painesdale Jeffers began to emerge as a Class D power over the week with back-to-back victories over two rated teams, Dollar Bay on Wednesday and Baraga Friday, by a score of 53-50. Painesdale led all the way against Baraga, sometimes by as many as 16 points.

Covert also perpetrated a Class D upset, with an 82-78 victory over fourth-ranked Benton Harbor St. John.

Adrian Catholic Central, rated second in Class D, pulled out of a squeaker with a 46-44 win over Britton-Macon. Ahead by one point with a minute and a half to go, Catholic Central started a stall which was broken only by a foul. Dave Claudia made the first shot for the final point, and time ran out after Britton-Macon grabbed the rebound on the second.

Free Throws Down Esky; Redmen Win U.P. Championship

Who says free throws aren't important? The Marquette Redmen used 36 of them to down the Escanaba Eskymos 80-68 for the Upper Peninsula Class A title.

It was the second title for the Redmen, having last won in the 1964 season. Marquette's victory snapped the Eskymo streak at three. Esky has won five U.P. championships, topping the heap in 1961, 62, 65, 66, and 67.

The lead changed hands nine times during the first quarter. Defensive rebounding by Marquette's John Anderson gave the Redmen many opportunities for shots close to the bucket. Guard Jim Schacht used quickness and the ability to change direction to score layups through the middle of the Eskymo defense. Eskymo John Moberg had the hot hand from the left side as he collected 5 field goals from 20 feet in the first half.

Huskies, Sioux Battle To Tie

HOUGHTON (AP)—Michigan Tech and North Dakota proved themselves equally powerful—or powerless—as they dueled to a scoreless tie in a hockey game Friday night.

Each goalie had 31 saves in the 0-0 contest. Netminder Gordie McRae of the Huskies stopped 11 shots in the first period, 10 in the second and 10 in the third. Goalie Mike Curran of the Sioux stopped 11 in the first period, 16 in the second and four in the third.

Even in the number of shots attempted, the teams almost attained a standoff. Michigan Tech attempted 75, North Dakota 67.

The game was part of the playoffs for the NCAA hockey tournament scheduled next week in Duluth, Minn. The Huskies and Sioux will play each other again tonight.

The Eskymos trailed 37-36 at the intermission. The Redmen jumped out to a 41-36 lead before the Eskymos could get the ball downcourt. Escanaba rallied behind the play of center Mike Beck, who scored seven straight points to knot the score. The Eskymos got in foul trouble in the period mainly on the play of pivotman Schacht. He had the Eskymo defenders all over his back with his fine fakes and drives.

In the strange fourth quarter, Marquette scored 26 points on three field goals and 20 free throws out of 21 attempts. The frame also puzzled the referees as they had to go to the locker

'Yago' Leads Team In Rodman Tourney

Con Yagodzinski, 6 foot 5 inch Northern Michigan University All-American in 1967, will lead a team defending the McNeil Oiler Class A championship at the Rodman Tournament in Hermansville, March 23 through 31.

"Yago", who is an assistant coach to Fred Boddy at Bay Port High School in Green Bay, starred at Holy Name High School in 1962 when the school won the Upper Peninsula Class B title. He became the third player in Northern Michigan University history to score 1000 or more points, totaling 1098 points in a three year period. He was Northern's most valuable player for the 1966-67 season. At Holy Name, Con received All-State honors two years.

Playing on the McNeil Oiler team, captained by Yagodzinski, is last year's tourney most valuable player, Tom Lemo-rande.

This year's Hermansville Tournament is the 30th of a long and successful series. Thirty-eight teams participated in last year's tourney with the Oilers taking the Class A title

As it turned out, Boyle shot the free throw but missed so nothing ever came of the dispute. Anderson shot 11 times from the line in the frame and made all of them.

The Redmen topped the Eskymos on the boards 50-33 with Anderson hauling in 17. John Moberg had 13 for Escanaba. Marquette made 22 of 56 field goal attempts while Esky dropped in 28 of 70, the big difference was at the gift line where Marquette made 36 of 46 to the Eskymos 12 of 18.

Top scorer for Marquette was Larry Ruffatto with 21 points. Teammates Jim Schacht had 17, Bob Schacht 14, Anderson 13 and Dave Nyquist 11. Moberg topped Escanaba with 16 points. Dan Mylander added 14.

Marquette now goes to Grand Rapids for the Class A regional to be played next week.

North Caroling Defeats Duke By Incredible Mark

By The Associated Press
North Carolina State used some "walk, don't run" basketball philosophy Friday night and sent Duke's sixth-ranked Blue Devils heading for the nearest exit from the Atlantic Coast Conference playoffs.

The Wolfpack held the ball without taking a shot for almost 14 minutes in the second half, then scored six points in the last 2½ minutes for an incredible 12-10 victory that sent them into Saturday night's title game against North Carolina with a berth in the NCAA tournament at stake.

That tourney gets under way today with seven first-round games at four scattered sites, including appearances by top-ranked Houston and third-rated

St. Bonaventure, only major unbeaten teams in the country.

Houston, led by Elvin Hayes. The Associated Press' player of the year, takes its 28-0 record against upset-minded Chicago Loyola in a doubleheader at Salt Lake City, Utah. New Mexico State and Weber State both 21-5, meet in the other half of the twin bill.

St. Bonaventure, winner of all 22 regular season games, faces Boston College in a single game at Kingston, R.I.

Columbia's Ivy League champions kick off the tournament against La Salle in the opener of an afternoon doubleheader at College Park, Md. Davidson faces St. John's of New York in the second game.

Another doubleheader, this one at Kent, Ohio, sends Florida State against East Tennessee and Marquette against Bowling Green.

The seven winners advance to next weekend's regionals at Raleigh, N.C.; Lexington, Ky.; Wichita, Kan., and Albuquerque, N.M.

Coaches Norman Sloan of North Carolina State and Vic Bubas of Duke, who were teammates at State 20 years ago, called timeouts galore in the final minute of their slowdown showdown to set up strategy.

Duke held a 4-2 halftime lead after State held the ball for eight minutes. The biggest freeze set in after the Blue Devils took an 8-4 lead with 16:15 remaining. For most of the next 14 minutes, Bill Kretzer, State's 6-foot-7 center, dribbled the ball with only an occasional pass to a teammate.

Eddie Biedenbach's jump shot tied the score with 2½ minutes left and then it was Duke's turn to hold the ball and try for one last shot. But State chose to foul Dave Golden with 43 seconds left and the best he could do was make one of two free throws for a 9-8 lead.

Dick Braucher gave State the lead with 40 seconds to go when he put in a rebound of Kretzer's missed free throw and sophomore Vann Willford made a foul shot with 16 seconds to play. Ten seconds later Golden had a chance to tie it up but missed his second foul shot.

State took only 13 shots, making four, while Duke was two for 11.

In the other semifinal, Dick Grubar and Gerald Tuttle supplied the vital points in overtime as fifth-ranked North Carolina outlasted South Carolina 82-79. All-American Larry Miller scored 24 points and Grubar added 20, 13 more than his season's average.

Spring Can Do Wonderful Things To Baseball Team

By The Associated Press
Ah, what wonderful things spring can do for a baseball team.

Today's example is the Chicago White Sox, those lovable, little hitless wonders who had a team batting average of .225 last year.

The Sox made their 1968 debut at Sarasota, Fla., Friday, pounded out 14 hits and thumped Boston's American League champions 7-3. It was enough to make Manager Eddie Stanky risk a contented smile.

Two newcomers—outfielders Russ Snyder and Tommy Davis—led the offense with two hits apiece. Snyder, acquired from Baltimore, rapped a triple and a single and scored twice. Davis, who came from the New York Mets, slapped a pair of singles and scored twice.

The Mets, meanwhile, were idle but in form. Often accused of not being able to stay out of each other's way, they proved it in practice when ace pitcher Tom Seaver was hit in the head by a line drive.

Coach Eddie Yost was the culprit and the interesting part of this story was that Yost was supposed to have been hitting grounders, not line drives.

Seaver escaped serious injury and was expected to start today's exhibition opener against St. Louis.

Philadelphia, playing without Rich Allen, took an 11-2 shellacking from Cincinnati at Clearwater, Fla. Allen left the Phillies' camp and returned to Philadelphia to have his injured right hand examined by his own physician.

"I wasn't feeling good and I wanted to see my own doctor about my right hand," said Allen. The slugging third baseman missed the last six weeks of the 1967 season when he cut his hand in an accident.

Oakland's brand new Athletics won their first start with an exciting late rally, beating Detroit 3-2 at Bradenton, Fla.

Four Houston pitchers limited Pittsburgh to four hits at Fort Myers, Fla., as the Astros beat the Pirates 4-2. Hector Torres' two-run single in the sixth inning drove in the winning runs.

John Buzhardt, Joe Moeller, Denny Lemaster and Danny

Cincinnati, Ohio (AP) — The Detroit Pistons are in fourth place in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association.

They got by with wiping out Cincinnati 129-118 Friday night behind the pin-point shooting of Eddie Miles and Dave Bing who shared scoring honors with 31 points each.

In other NBA contests, Philadelphia edged even closer to a third straight Eastern Division crown by defeating Boston 101-96, Los Angeles topped San Diego 130-122 and Baltimore beat Seattle 122-116.

In the American Basketball Association, Dallas nipped Houston 117-116. Kentucky defeated New Jersey 109-110, New Orleans beat Pittsburgh 116-114 and Minnesota whipped Oakland 109-101.

The 76ers' victory, paced by Wilt Chamberlain who roped in 24 rebounds and scored 13 points and Hal Greer who scored 27, put Philadelphia's division-leading margin over Boston at 6½ games. Now, any combination of two 76er victories or Boston defeats will give Philadelphia the division championship.

Detroit moved into the final playoff spot of the division. The Pistons led most of the game, building a small margin in the first half by taking advantage of numerous Cincinnati turnovers.

Coombs shared the pitching for Houston. Jim Bunning, acquired from Philadelphia during the winter, made his debut for the Pirates and allowed one run and five hits in three innings.

Ken Holtzman, unbeaten last season, took the loss as San Francisco dropped the Chicago Cubs 6-3 at Scottsdale, Ariz.

Iowa Needs Win Over Michigan In Big Ten

By The Associated Press
Iowa's Hawkeyes hope to capture their first Big Ten basketball championship in 12 years and nail down a NCAA championship berth in the process tonight.

The Hawkeyes have already clinched a tie for the title and need a victory over suddenly energetic Michigan to claim the championship.

Iowa has lost only three Big Ten games this season—all on the road. The Hawkeyes have six triumphs at home and should make Michigan victim No. 7.

However, the Wolverines could prove troublesome although they have only a 5-8 record in the conference and are destined to a second division finish. Michigan has won its last three games and four of six in the Big Ten since taking a 99-86 drubbing at the hands of Iowa in Ann Arbor.

As usual, Iowa will rely on Sam Williams whose 25.3 average is second only to Purdue's Rick Mount who has a 29.8 average. Michigan has three of the league's top nine scorers including Rudy Tomjanovich with 19.7, Jim Pitts 19.2 and Dennis Stewart 18.8.

If Iowa falls against Michigan, the Hawkeyes would fall into a first place tie with Ohio State and a playoff would be held at Purdue Tuesday night to determine the conference representative in the NCAA playoffs. Ohio State ended its season with a 10-4 record after edging Illinois 67-64.

The Big Ten race will close with three other games on tap Saturday. Purdue is at Indiana in a regionally televised matinee and the Boilermakers could clinch third place with a triumph.

In night action, Illinois is at Michigan State and Wisconsin at Northwestern.

THE 1968 PGA TOUR has teed off, but not without some of the frustrations of the 1967 tour. Even the big money winners of last season find themselves behind trees, in sand traps and lipping the cup, as attested to by PGA champion Dan January (left), U. S. Open winner Jack Nicklaus (center) and Masters king Gay Brewer.

CHICAGO (AP) — Iowa is favored to wrap up the undisputed Big Ten basketball title and an NCAA berth against visiting Michigan tonight, but a Hawkeye stumble would be par for the course in a zany conference race.

Average Citizen Little Concerned With Gold Price

By JOHN CUNIFF
NEW YORK (AP) — How many Americans can really say how they would be affected by an increase in the price of gold — by devaluing the dollar in relation to that metal?

The answer requires no professional survey. This is a wasteland area of knowledge. It is filled with rumors, misinterpreted statements and wild speculations held together by a thread of fear. But why worry?

To the average American a gold price increase very likely would have almost no personal effect. His wages, real estate and savings account would show little if any change.

Moreover, most consumer prices wouldn't show great changes immediately, although a gold price increase might be inflationary over the longer term.

Not His Problem

Stock prices might drop, because any rumblings in the world monetary system shake confidence, and confidence is the underpinning of the market. But the asset value of corporations wouldn't change much. Then why should the ordinary

BARBED WIRE and Babbling Brooks

Spring sun shines on babbling brooks — and barbed wire. A bird song lilts prettily on fragrant air — and a sniper shot splits the silence. New green burgeons through brown winter grasses — and red blood drenches jungle earth.

One's description of the season depends upon location. In some parts of the world there are happy people, enjoying the spring, looking forward to Easter services. Other faces of this globe find suffering people, anguished by the sunshine, hungry, afraid, lonely, dying.

Centuries ago on black Calvary hill, Jesus of Nazareth demonstrated perfect love. Down through the ages, His life and teachings have pointed the way for mankind to heal the ills of the world.

So, in this Lenten season let us offer ourselves—our time and talents—to the service of His Church, in its task of making His kingdom come upon earth.
